

2018 Greater Triangle Area CROP Hunger Walk

WALK ON 10/28 TO HELP SIX LOCAL AGENCIES FIGHT HUNGER

RALEIGH, NC – The 2018 Greater Triangle Area CROP Hunger Walk will take place on Sunday, October 28, 2:00 p.m. at the Court of North Carolina trail on the campus of North Carolina State University.

Registration starts at 2:00 p.m. and step-off is at 3:00 p.m.

This is the 38th year for CROP in the Greater Triangle Area. Last year, the walk raised more than $50,000 to help feed hungry people, provide food and supplies for disaster zones, assist refugee settlement, and support sustainable agriculture.

Want to get involved? Become a team captain, join an existing team, sponsor the event, or become a prayer partner. Free t-shirts will be provided for all walkers who register on a team by October 1st. Register your team or yourself and find out more information about the walk at www.trianglenccrop.org.

Pre-Walk: Come play and learn before the Walk. Each benefiting agency will have a booth showcasing the programs you help fund with the money raised at the CROP Hunger walk. There will be child-friendly activities including face painting, a drum circle, and banner making.

Snacks and Drinks will be provided at the end of the walk. This walk is open to all people and friendly, four-legged friends!

The 2018 local benefitting agencies are:

- Catholic Parish Outreach
- Dorcas Ministries
- Feed the Pack Food Pantry at NCSU
- The Food Bank of Central & Eastern North Carolina
- North Raleigh Ministries
- Urban Ministries of Wake County

Sponsors, Friends and Partners for the Greater Triangle Area CROP Hunger Walk include:

- Aggregate Theatre Company
- Dr. Ashley Lloyd, DDS
- St. Matthew Baptist Church
- Hunter Innovations
- Fairmont United Methodist Church
- Holy Trinity Lutheran Church

CROP Hunger Walks help children and families worldwide - and right here in North Carolina - to have food for today, while building for a better tomorrow. Local efforts are making a huge difference, and so can you.
